“NEW MUSLIM COOL possesses a kind of beauty that sneaks up on you...the film is an opportunity to access a closer view of human decency.”

Ginia Bellafante
 New York Times

When the FBI raids his mosque, Puerto Rican American Muslim hip-hop star Hamza Pérez confronts the post-9/11 world, and challenges himself. He starts reaching for a deeper understanding of his faith and discovers new connections with Jews, Christians, and others from all across the American spectrum.

NEW MUSLIM COOL takes viewers on Hamza’s ride through the streets, projects and jail cells of urban America, following his spiritual journey to some surprising places —where we can all see ourselves reflected.

“HIGHLY RECOMMENDED” – Video Librarian

“Thoughtful, inspirational, and transformative.”
 — Professor H. Samy Alim, Stanford University

“See it for pleasure and a new outlook on Islam in America.”
 — Ambassador Akbar Ahmed, Ibn Khaldun Chair of Islamic Studies, American University

“Through the character of Hamza Pérez, we are inspired to journey together to improve ourselves, our communities, and our world.”
 — Kathryn Lohre, the Pluralism Project at Harvard University

“One of the most lyrical, complex and contemporary investigations of religion in America.”
 — Professor Diane Winston, Knight Chair in Media and Religion, University of Southern California
